

THE GREAT INDOORS

THINGS TO DO AT HOME

We know there are bigger things to worry about right now, but cabin fever doesn't have to be one of them.

We can take this opportunity to spend more time with our families, learn a new skill, even get caught up on our to-do lists.

Here we provide a few ideas to get you started—there's a whole world to explore!

PLAY CARD GAMES

Play card games like Go Fish, Penny Poker, Spoons, or Concentration. Find more online at:

bit.ly/play-cards

BUILD A BLANKET FORT

Being stuck at home is the perfect time to build an epic fort, so grab your blankets and start moving the furniture.

CREATE AN INDOOR SCAVENGER HUNT

Keep your kids occupied and laughing for hours with a scavenger hunt.

BE A DIGITAL VOLUNTEER

Become a Smithsonian Digital Volunteer and transcribe historical documents.

bit.ly/smithsonian-volunteer

WRITE LETTERS

Make the day brighter for an elderly person or someone in need.

bit.ly/letters-to-strangers

bit.ly/letters-to-elderly

READ DIGITAL LIBRARY BOOKS

Download the Libby App to tap into digital library books.

bit.ly/libby-books-online

LEARN A NEW LANGUAGE

Brush up on your high school Spanish or learn a completely new language.

duolingo.com

PICK UP A NEW SKILL

Explore new skills, deepen an existing passion and get lost in creativity.

lynda.com or skillshare.com

LISTEN TO TED TALKS

Get inspired – listen to “ideas worth spreading.”

ted.com

CHALLENGE AND IMPROVE YOUR MIND

Improve your memory and your focus with brain games from Lumosity.

lumosity.com

COOK AT HOME WITH CHEFS

Cook along with your favorite chefs at the Food Network Kitchen. You'll learn new cooking skills and enjoy meals at home.

bit.ly/cook-with-chefs

HELP YOUR KIDS LEARN AT HOME

Scholastic Learn at Home offers projects to keep kids reading, thinking and growing.

bit.ly/scholastic-at-home

